

Mental Health Awareness Month in Blair County

Light the Way
FOR MENTAL HEALTH

During the month of May, light your business, home, or church up green to Light the Way for Mental Health.

Send a picture of your business (make sure to include your logo or

by May 8th

to be featured on the jumbotron at the

May 21st Curve game.

On May 21, 2022, The Altoona Curve will be hosting the Richmond Flying Squirrels. As part of Mental Health Awareness Month, they'll be taking the field in green pinstripe jerseys, where the pinstripes will contain the names of loved ones who died by suicide. The jerseys will be auctioned off via LiveSource.

Presented by: Blair County Suicide Prevention Task Force, Blair County System of Care, and the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention

The Curve is pre-selling
'Altoona Curve You Matter' t-shirts.

There will be two versions of the shirts;
one that includes the names from the jerseys (with names here) and one that does not include the names (without names here).

T-shirts must be pre-ordered by 4/22/22.

If your agency is interested in being a vendor at the game, email

Cindy James at cjames@blairco.org.
